The Vet's Day

Alex Peterson is a vet. He works in a small town in England. Alex's day begins very early at six o'clock. He gets up, has a quick breakfast, then gets into his car. In the mornings, he drives around the local farms to check on the animals – cows, sheep and horses. At eleven o'clock, he goes to his surgery in the town. People bring their pets for Alex to look at. Most of the time, they only need an injection or some medicine, but sometimes they need an operation.

Alex usually has lunch – a sandwich – standing up! In the afternoons, Alex often goes to schools in the area to talk to the students about looking after their pets.

Alex's evenings are very quiet. When he gets home, he cooks dinner and usually reads or watches TV. He goes to bed early, ready to face the next busy day. In his free time, Alex likes going to the cinema or taking long walks in the country with his two dogs, Sheba and Nell.

Dear George,

How are you? Here we are at my grandma and grandpa's country house and we're having a great time! The house is old, but very beautiful. It's got three floors and six bedrooms. All the bedrooms have got a beautiful fireplace and their own bathroom.

It's a bit cold and windy here, but the sun is shining. In the morning, my grandpa makes us breakfast, then we all go for a little walk to the nearby village. Sometimes, we feed the ducks in the river. After lunch at the cottage, we play board games like Monopoly or Scrabble, or we talk. My grandpa is very funny and tells very good stories!

At the moment, my grandma is decorating the house with balloons. It's my brother's birthday tomorrow. We'll probably have a little party for him!

See you soon.
